Questions about
Ward 2?

Campaign Priorities for Seniors

Heat Impacts and Climate Change

- Commit to a minimum of 45% of urban forest canopy cover in the downtown core - Council approved 40%
- Implement mandatory Green Development Standards (GDS) for all new development - Green Building Standards approved in 2024
- Draft local tenant protection policies - Adequate Temperature Bylaw

Campaign Priorities for Seniors

Tenant Protections

- Draft local tenant protection policies - Renovictions Bylaw, Safe Apartments Bylaw, Property Standards Bylaw
- Implement local landlord licensing - Pilot in Wards 1 and 8 ending this year with the potential to expand citywide
- Coordinate CityHousing Hamilton and the City's Housing Services department - new CEO has helped to restructure the organization and make it more efficient (500 units back online)

Campaign Priorities for Seniors

Getting Around the Neighbourhood

- Audit roads, sidewalks, and other public spaces to ensure that they're hazard free and kept that way - Unprecedented program to repair sidewalks in this term (millions invested)
- Collaborate with neighbourhoods to redesign unsafe streets - Successful piloting of new street safety tracking to implement hundreds of future improvements; installation of traffic calming measures

Campaign Priorities for Seniors

Getting Around the Neighbourhood

- Increase the number of public washrooms, drinking fountains, and garbage cans - new drinking fountains being installed this year, new garbage cans installed annually, public washrooms opened at Corktown Park (more to come)
- Grow the Hamilton Bike Share fleet both east of Ottawa Street and on the Mountain - expansion approved at Council this month, still more work to do to reach the rest of the city

Campaign Priorities for Seniors

Better Communication and Service

- Increase the staffing complement in the Ward 2 office to 3 FTEs - hired third staff member, part time, in 2024
- Launch a dedicated 311 service for Hamilton - support for this in the last 3 budgets to improve the resident experience
- Expand free public wireless internet in the core - wifi coming to more Ward 2 parks in 2025 and 2026
